Based on the face-to-face interviews, I would recommend inviting the following candidates to the initial training session (tentatively scheduled to take place in Rio de Janeiro in August):

1. Dr. Carlos Alvarez (Argentina)
2. Dr. Eduardo Gros (Argentina)
3. Dr. Osvaldo Fustinoni (Argentina)
4. Dr. Antonio Horacio Miguel (Brazil)
5. Dr. Francisco Radler de Aquino Neto (Brazil)
6. Dr. Jari Cardoso Nobrega (Brazil)
7. Dr. Celio Paula Motta (Brazil)
8. Dr. Hector Croxatto (Chile)
9. Dr. Lionel Gil (Chile)
10. Dr. Remigio Lopez (Chile)
11. Dr. Sergio de Tezanos-Pinto (Chile)
12. Dra. Maria del Rosario Alfaro (Costa Rica)
13. Dr. Bruno Burger (Venezuela)
14. Dr. Eduardo Souchon (Venezuela)

I would also keep the following "alternates" in mind in case any of the candidates listed above do not work out or it is decided that additional consultants are needed:

1. Ricardo Katz (Chile)
2. Guillermo Guesse (Chile)
3. Dr. Alonso Armijos Luna (Ecuador)

Part I of this memorandum is a country-by-country summary of my interviews with, and impressions of, each of the seventeen candidates listed above. Principally for the benefit of the local companies, Part II of this memorandum outlines my reasons for not selecting the other candidates interviewed.
